

TOPIC

Materials – Section IX – Question 3

QUESTION

Plastic deformation in polycrystalline materials happens due to

- (A) high magnetic field
- (B) motion of dislocations
- (C) their amorphous structure
- (D) high strain rate

HINT

Plastic deformation has to do with the microstructure of polycrystalline materials.

CONTRIBUTOR

Alex Volinsky