

TOPIC

Materials – Section IX – Question 3

QUESTION

Plastic deformation in polycrystalline materials happens due to

- (A) high magnetic field
- (B) motion of dislocations
- (C) their amorphous structure
- (D) high strain rate

HINT

Plastic deformation has to do with the microstructure of polycrystalline materials.

SOLUTION

Plastic deformation in polycrystalline materials happens due to the motion of dislocations.

ANSWER

(B)

CONTRIBUTOR

Alex Volinsky